

WILL PROBE THE WATER TORTURE

Vigorous Steps to Put a Stop to Cruelties in the Philippines.

PRESIDENT IS HOT

Military Tribunal to Take Up Cases of General Smith and Others Accused.

HITS AT WEYLERISM

Washington, April 16.—Vigorous measures were taken by the president today to put a stop to alleged Weyerism in the Philippines. General Smith will probably be court-martialed, and the officers who inflicted the "water-cure" upon natives, as was testified to before the senate committee on Philippines yesterday, are also to be tried by a military tribunal. Orders to this effect were cabled General Chaffee by Secretary Root this morning.

At last the administration has been aroused to an appreciation of the fact that the American people want to know the truth about the situation in the Philippines and they also want all guilty officers punished. As is often the case, the public mind was deeply stirred by the ugly news from the Philippines before official Washington realized that something was wrong.

Gulity Must Be Punished
President Roosevelt, himself, having heard of the deep agitation of the people over these disclosures, brought the matter to the attention of the cabinet. With great earnestness he said this sort of thing must stop, and that the guilty must be punished. During the discussion that followed a member of the cabinet remarked that according to unofficial dispatches Major Waller had been acquitted.

The president said if that was true it afforded an additional reason why General Smith's orders to Major Waller should be inquired into. If the subordinate had shielded himself behind the bloodthirsty orders of his superior then the superior officer must suffer. Without presuming to prejudge the facts in any way the president insisted that the case should be rigorously investigated and that no guilty man escape.

Nothing Could Justify Torture
The president was notified that the alleged "water cure" case occurred twenty-two months ago. He replied that he did not care if it had occurred twenty-two years ago. It must be investigated, and if American officers had been guilty of torturing a Filipino they must be punished. The lapse of time could not be used as an excuse in this or any other case. The president said he was opposed to torture in any form whatever, and it must not be used in the American army.

Nothing could justify it. If the natives murdered our troops or assassinated their own countrymen they could be punished under the articles of war. Torture had no place in our code, said the president. He would endorse the most rigorous measures to preserve order. He would uphold the army in the sharpest sort of warfare, as war must be war, but he would insist upon punishment of barbarism, no matter what excuses were offered in palliation.

TO ELECT SENATORS BY DIRECT VOTE

Depew's Bill, Aiming to Give Negroes Vote in the South, Passed the Senate Committee.

Washington, D. C. April 16.—Senator Depew's amendment to the house resolution providing for direct vote on United States senators was adopted by a majority of one vote in the senate committee on Privileges and Elections today. This amendment is aimed at the Southern states which have been barring the negroes from the ballot.

The amendment, which has aroused the representatives of the states where the franchise is limited, will, if adopted, revolutionize the election laws of the South and compel the States to open the ballot to all entitled to vote under the constitution. The proposition to give U. S. Senators in proportion to their population was rejected. Final action will be taken by the committee next week. The committee voted down the Penrose amendment providing that Senators shall be apportioned according to the population of the several states. The vote on the Penrose amendment was unanimous.

SEND INSTRUCTIONS TO THE ASSESSORS

The Annual Pamphlet of the State Tax Commission Has Been Issued and Sent Out.

Madison, Wis., April 16.—The state tax commission today issued the annual pamphlet of instructions to assessors. It is sixty-nine pages in length, forty-one more than last year and 1900. All this and much more is entirely new matter, and all matters of assessment are fully explained. The laws concerning assessment are given and explained and the different phases of the question are treated under different heads. Among the subjects considered are essentials of the assessment, the listing of real estate, real estate claimed to be exempt, listing of personal property, what personal property is liable to taxation, what may be considered debts, discovery of personal property, under-valuation, separate valuation of improvements, exemption on account of debts owing, view and inspection of property, shifting responsibility, the board of review, equalization in joint, school districts, and others.

TAKE A TRIP DOWN THE MISSISSIPPI

The Wisconsin Press Association Will Make a Journey Feature of the Annual Outing.

Jefferson, Wis., April 16.—The members of the Wisconsin Press Association will have a two-weeks' trip down the Mississippi river as the feature of the annual outing for 1902. President Edward L. Luckow of Beaver Dam and Secretary O. F. Roessler of this city are now making plans for the outing. While nothing definite as regards the full itinerary is completed, some ideas of the nature of the trip has developed. The largest attendance in the history of the association is predicted.

The final arrangements for the trip will be in the hands of Secretary Roessler, who will send particulars to each member of the association. The latter will announce whether or not they will make the trip and the secretary completes the last particulars. One of the pleasant features of the trip will be concerts on the river by either an orchestra or a band from Wisconsin.

Next year will mark the fiftieth anniversary of the existence of the Wisconsin Press Association and at a meeting of the executive committee to be held in a few months, the date of having been decided upon as yet, plans for the celebration of the event will be made.

Officers are not ready at this time to make predictions as to the nature of the celebration, which will be after the usual manner of the editors in whatever form it may come to pass.

Farmers' Institutes in June

ARMED GENDARMES GUARD FUNERAL

Strike in Belgium Is Spreading Fast—Demands of Socialists Will Be Refused Today.

Brussels, April 16.—The funerals of the two citizens killed in the recent riots occurred this morning. A platoon of gendarmes armed with shotguns was stationed along the road to the cemetery. Hundreds silently followed the bodies about. The utmost decorum was maintained. The strike continues to spread among the miners and workmen of all classes. Today the socialists intend to make a formal demand in the chambers for universal suffrage. As the demands doubtless will be set aside it is feared serious trouble will ensue. The government is censoring all telegrams.

The attitude of the people throughout the city is threatening. The slightest spark may precipitate a catastrophe. The gendarmes and cavalry are patrolling the streets. The strike has spread throughout the whole country.

QUEEN WILHELMINA IS SERIOUSLY ILL

Amsterdam, April 16.—The condition of Queen Wilhelmina is hourly becoming more serious. Her illness is due to a premature confinement.

AWFUL SLAUGHTER IN SOUTHERN CHINA

Hong Kong, April 16.—A report from Kewangsi province says that two thousand imperial troops sent against the rebels were ambushed in a defile and all killed or captured.

Vote on Exclusion Bill

Washington, D. C., April 16.—On this day for taking the vote on the Chinese exclusion bill, the senate met two hours earlier than usual in order to give the senators who desired an opportunity to discuss the measure before the hour of voting.

L. G. Rogers of Milton Junction transacted business at the court house yesterday.

TO ORGANIZE A FARMERS' TRUST

Agriculturists See Profit in Combine Along Industrial Lines.

PLAN TO PROTECT

All Sections of the Country Are Being Visited by the Organizers.

DAIRYMEN ALSO IN IT

Producers in the rural districts of many sections of the country are organizing for protection at such a rate that a mighty farmers' trust is threatened. Farmers, dairymen, peach dealers, lime growers and more truck gardeners from Florida to Wisconsin have recently formed associations and others are being planned.

All sections of every state are being visited by organizers, who are agitating agriculturists to join co-operative organizations. This union movement among the producing classes was the general topic of conversation yesterday.

The formation of the Farmers Co-operative association of Black Creek, Wis., the latest organization heard from, was the cause of the discussion. Following the trend of the times 250 farmers representing 10,000 acres, combined. These men raise only potatoes, cabbage, onions and squash and are commonly called truck gardeners, yet they have united in a powerful organization. Officers were elected, including a general manager and salesman, who will conduct negotiations for the sale of produce to commission men.

Plan to Protect Sellers
The merchants of Janesville and other cities will be classified under "good" and "bad" headings and the market watched so as to keep the members informed on prevailing prices.

A large storage building will be erected in Black Creek. This will be of solid stone and will be large enough to hold many tons of produce. When the producers think they are not receiving high enough prices they will keep their produce until commission men offer them better rates and the needy members will be taken care of meanwhile by the association.

The Black Creek association will establish an understanding with similar organizations not only in Wisconsin, but in other states. Henry M. Louis, who was elected general manager and salesman, is also manager of the Farmers' Co-operative association of Shiocton and has a large shipping business out of Appleton. He is authorized by the farmers to sell or contract in advance for next fall's delivery.

Dairymen in a Strong Organization
Co-operation among dairy and creamery men in Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin has been a fact for a long time and their example is said to have been the main inspiration of the farmers' associations. Promoters of these associations claim buyers, commission men and the trade generally prefer to purchase in large quantities, or handle on commission, where there is only one man or a few in place than where there are many individuals.

DISTRIBUTING THE NEW MAIL BOXES

Very Ingenious Device Ordered by Nearly All Farmers on the Rural Mail Routes.

During the past few days D. M. Barless on Court street has been delivering about 300 mail boxes to be used by the patrons of the rural delivery routes centering in this city. The boxes are a very ingenious device and nearly every farmer on the rural routes has ordered one.

The box is about 15 inches long, 12 inches deep and five inches wide. It is constructed of sheet metal with an aluminum finish and will last for many years.

The cover lifts and a second cover is constructed about two inches below inside. When the mail carrier delivers mail in the box he lifts the top cover and places the mail on the inside cover. When the top cover is lowered the inside cover allows the mail to drop down into the box and cannot be gotten at until the box is unlocked.

When the top cover is lifted a two inch white disk is hoisted at one corner of the box, showing that there is mail in the box. A clasp on the under side of the top cover holds any mail that may be ready for the mail carrier to collect. When mail is left for the carrier to collect a brown disk is hoisted at one corner of the box.

Two keys are furnished with each box but these keys will not unlock any other box. The carrier has a key however that will unlock every box on the route. Of the 350 patrons of the several rural routes over 300 have ordered these boxes and nearly all of them have been delivered.

Wm. Harter, foreman for the construction crew of the Wisconsin Telephone company, is in town today to see about moving the poles belonging to the telephone company on McKee boulevard that are in the way of the Beloit-Janesville inter-urban road.

CROP SEASON IS VERY BACKWARD

Weather Bureau Reports on Wheat, Corn and Fruit Conditions.

RAIN IS NEEDED

Corn Planting General in Kansas and Missouri—Preparing to Plant in Iowa.

FROST INJURED FRUIT

Washington, April 16.—The weather bureau's weekly summary of crop conditions says: Although the temperature above the normal over the northern portion of the country east of the Rocky mountains, the season is reported as backward in these districts, except in New England and New York, where it is from one to two weeks earlier than the average. The season is also backward in the southern states.

Rain is much needed in the Ohio, central Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys, over the western portion of the lake region, in southern Florida and the Rio Grande valley, including New Mexico and Colorado. Warmer and drier weather is badly needed on the north Pacific coast.

Corn planting is general in Kansas and Missouri and preparations in Iowa are unusually well advanced. Eastward of the Mississippi no corn has been planted north of Tennessee. In Texas and Louisiana much of the crop is up to fine stands and cultivation has begun.

While the growth of winter wheat has been slow, a very general improvement is reported from the principal winter wheat states, although the crop has deteriorated slightly in central and northern Illinois and is suffering for rain in northern Missouri. Though somewhat improved in Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia, the condition of the crop in these states continues much below the average. On the Pacific coast winter wheat has made rapid growth in California and a heavy crop is promised north of Tehachapi, but in Oregon and Washington the condition of the crop is less promising.

Spring wheat seeding is well advanced in the southern portion of the spring wheat region and a little has been sown in southern North Dakota. Warmth and moisture are much needed for germination.

The fruit outlook, except for peaches in some districts, is promising. Frosts have caused injury to peaches in Kentucky, Tennessee and the Carolinas.

MINISTERS MEET AT MONROE TOMORROW

State Evangelical Association Will Hold Its Annual Convention in Green County Metropolis.

Monroe, Wis., April 16.—Ministers began to arrive in the city today for the annual conference of the Evangelical association of Wisconsin. The conference proper will not begin until tomorrow when Bishop William Horn of Cleveland will be here to preside. The preliminary work consists of the examination of the junior preachers. The Rev. C. Schneider of Madison is chairman of the committee that has this work in hand.

THE SURRENDER OF GENERAL MALVAR

Washington, April 16.—General Chaffee in a cablegram to the war department today announced the surrender of General Malvar, thus ending the organized resistance to the United States in the department of north Philippines.

He also says a division of twelve hundred men has been sent to arrest Morris who murdered an American soldier at Parangue Parangue and to punish Datoz who refused to turn the murderers over to the American authorities. He adds that every precaution will be taken not to bring on a general war with Morris, but that it is necessary that our authority be respected and the sovereignty of the United States is fully acknowledged.

FEAR HITCH IN THE PEACENEGOTIATIONS

London, April 16.—The cabinet was hurriedly summoned to meet the foreign office this morning. Politicians generally believe that a hitch has occurred in the peace negotiations concerning the scope of general amnesty. Further communications from the Boers are said to have arrived last night.

New York, April 16.—The remains of Talmage were interred in the family lot at Greenwood cemetery this morning. The service at the grave was brief.

MAKE FAST TIME ON RAILWAY TRAINS

One Hundred and Eighty Miles in 180 Minutes—Remarkable Record by a Train on the Wabash.

Springfield, Ill., April 16.—The Continental Limited, on the Wabash railroad, has made a new record from Tilton to Granite City, making 180 miles in 180 minutes. This was with five stops—three station stops, one to change engines, and one to take on coal. The actual running time was two hours and thirty-eight minutes. The run from Danville to Decatur, seventy-one and six-tenths miles, was made in seventy minutes, including stops at Tolono and Benton.

Omaha, April 16.—The Burlington road today made public the details of a record breaking run of 14.8 miles from Eckley to Wray, Colo., made March 24. The distance was covered at the rate of 38.6 miles an hour. An official investigation was made by Burlington officials, who have received a personal report from Conductor J. H. Burns, who was in charge of the train. The run is said to beat any former record for that distance.

WILL ASK ROAD TO CHANGE ITS PLANS

Many Citizens Want Main Entrance of Proposed New Depot on Jackson Street.

There is considerable talk among the residents of the city about asking the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad company to modify the plans for the new passenger station so as to bring the main part of the station east of High street and the baggage room and the car sheds west of it.

The only change in the plans as they now stand would be the shifting of the baggage room and car sheds to the west end of the building. This change is proposed by many, for other reason that it will bring the main entrance at Jackson street, where there is not as much congestion and the crossing is not blocked as often as at Academy street.

It will also save people coming from town considerable travel and make Jackson street the main thoroughfare to the station. This change will take the passenger rooms away from the warehouses and freight rooms and put them in a pleasant part of the yards. A number of people have spoken to the railroad officials in regard to this change and there is no doubt but that they will recommend to the head of the department that the plans be changed to conform with this wish.

A deed was recorded transferring the F. A. Bemis farm in the town of Janesville to Mrs. W. W. Porter. The farm contains 160 acres of land and was bought for $16,000 or $100 per acre. It is understood that Mrs. Porter and her mother, Mrs. Barlow, will make the farm their home.

MOURN AT TALMAGE'S BIER

Church Crowded at Funeral of the Great Preacher.

Washington, April 16.—Funeral services were held at the Church of the Covenant for the Rev. T. De Witt Talmage. The large church was crowded to the doors.

The Rev. Dr. Teunis S. Hamlin, pastor of the church, and the Rev. Drs. Thomas Chalmers Easton of this city, S. J. Nicols and James Demarest of Brooklyn officiated. The floral offerings included a wreath sent by President and Mrs. Roosevelt.

Dr. Hamlin, in his address, pictured Dr. Talmage as one of the great clergymen of the century. Dr. Demarest said Dr. Talmage was sensational because he must be, and it was natural. Dr. Easton said since the days of Paul, he said Beecher, Spurgeon and Talmage were the three greatest preachers of the century, but the last named was the prince of the pulpits.

TURN TOWARDS THEIR HOMES

Badger Tourists in California Are Ready to Return East.

EXODUS HAS BEGUN

Another Chapter from Mrs. Brand Regarding Janesville People She Has Met.

MRS. FRANCIS MURPHY

Los Angeles, Cal., April 10.—With the first of this month the exodus of tourists from this popular refuge for those who wish to escape from the snow and ice of eastern winters, began in earnest and departures will continue in large numbers for several weeks yet, although many are lingering later than usual, because of the convention of the General Federation of Woman's Clubs and of La Fiesta de Los Flores or the annual feast of flowers, both of which will occur the first week in May. Travel eastward is so congested at present, especially over the southern routes, that it is almost impossible to get sleeping car accommodations unless they are engaged several days in advance.

Turning Towards Home.
Among those who are turning their faces homeward are several from Janesville. Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Fletcher left Los Angeles last Monday and will doubtless have reached home before this letter is read, although they intended to make several short stops on the way.

Their first stop was to be at Sacramento, the capital of this state, and the next at Salt Lake City. From the Mormon stronghold they were to proceed through the most picturesque mountain scenery of Colorado by the Denver & Rio Grande and then home by the Chicago & Northwestern from Omaha. When they had bade farewell to friends in California they were anticipating with pleasure a visit with other friends who once called Janesville home, it being their intention to stop at Colorado Springs for a short visit at the home of Will Davis, who is now a prosperous livery man at the popular Colorado resort.

Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell will start for home next week, but their stay in Wisconsin will only be temporary, as they have purchased a home in Redlands and will return to California for good before snow flies again, a fact that their many Janesville friends will learn with regret.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell have been here a year, spending the time principally at Long Beach, Pomona, Pasadena and Redlands. Last Monday noon, when we were returning from the depot, after saying good-bye to Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher, as we walked down Main street, my ear caught the word "Janesville."

Quick as a flash I turned and almost at my elbow stood Mr. Campbell, talking to a gentleman acquaintance. The next day he and his wife called on us at our hotel and we enjoyed luncheon together. After a parting call on friends in Long Beach and Pasadena, they will leave for Portland, traveling homeward over the Northern Pacific and Chicago & Northwestern roads.

During the past three months, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell have neighbored considerably with Mrs. Mark Dunlap, who came to California last January for her health and who has a splendid temporary home with a family at Redlands. Mrs. Dunlap is now able to take long walks and in the estimation of those who have watched her with interest, her health is improved, although she is afflicted with the disease so pitifully common in this state—homelickness.

Many Pleasant Meetings.
We have had many pleasant meetings lately. The last day that we were in Long Beach, where we lived in quite primitive style in a two room cottage during the month of April, Miss Jennie Spoon and two lady friends arrived at the beach to spend a week. California climate and living, have certainly agreed with Miss Spoon, whose appearance bears witness to her assertion that she weighs six pounds more than she ever did in her life before.

She has been spending the winter with relatives in Riverside and after her stay at Long Beach, she will come to Los Angeles for a visit, after which she will spend some time in Oregon and Washington, returning to Salt Lake City, and proceeding home by the Denver & Rio Grande and the Chicago & Northwestern. The homeward trip for her is still in the indefinite future however.

An especially pleasant meeting occurred in quite an unexpected manner about a week ago. In response to a call for a meeting of Wisconsin women seen in the newspaper, I went to the Eoel Club house and a few minutes after I arrived, Miss May Cunningham walked into the room. She and her parents are comfortably established in their own home at 1237 West Seventh street, where the spirit of hospitality entered with its Wisconsin owners, Miss Julia Eehlin is their guest and will remain with them until she leaves for home the latter part of this month.

ation and present General Federation Secretary for Wisconsin, I heard my name called in masculine tones and turned in astonishment to see a gentleman riding up to the sidewalk on a bicycle. His smiling eyes and outstretched hand told me that he was someone I knew, still there was something strangely unfamiliar until the gentleman explained that he had been using the razor more extensively than when he lived in Janesville.

Then I knew why I had not recognized at once L. R. Brode, who taught ologies and isms in the high school not many years ago. He is now associated with his brother in the electrical business under the name of the Brode Electrical company, with an office between Fifth and Sixth streets on South Broadway and the healthy but almost phenomenal growth of Los Angeles is keeping them so busy that they are almost forced to work day and night. I also understand that Mr. Brode will take a trip East in the near future on a very pleasant mission, the result of which will mean the loss to Janesville of one of her hair daughters.

Ready to Extend Glad Hand. Doubtless there is no other place in the United States where one could run across so many people ready to extend the glad hand, because they too once lived in Janesville. The large store of the Baird Brothers, general produce commission merchants, 375-381 Los Angeles street, has almost become headquarters for the Janesville colony and nearly everyone from Janesville calls on them soon after arrival in Los Angeles. The firm includes the four brothers, Joel, Llewellyn, George and Arthur Baird, the latter two of whom formerly lived in Janesville.

They transact an immense business which has outgrown their warehouse accommodations. Arthur Baird, who does the buying for the firm, left two weeks ago on an extended trip through the East, which will occupy the greater part of the summer and during which he will visit friends in Janesville. On our arrival in Los Angeles, George Baird met us at the depot, and for a week we were charmingly entertained in the pleasant home which he built at 648 Crocker street, when he first came to this city, five years ago, and over which his mother presides.

Mrs. Baird seems to have renewed her youth and is very happy in her California home. Within the past month, Mr. Baird has sold his Crocker street property and purchased another on West Twenty-Seventh street, that being the handsomest residence part of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman W. Church. Out in almost the same neighborhood in a pleasant furnished house at 1033 West Thirtieth street, Mr. and Mrs. Norman W. Church and son, master Ralph Withington Church, are making their winter home. As soon as Mrs. Church learned that we were in Los Angeles, we received a cordial invitation to dine with her and we spent a most delightful evening at her home. Mr. Church has purchased half interest in an automobile retail store in this city, the firm name being Crippen & Church, and he, his wife and son, will come here every winter, returning east for the summer as Mr. Church still retains his position with the Ohio firm, which he has represented for several years. Master Ralph has grown into a sturdy young bundle of energy, who insists on calling his mother "George" with a rising reflection on the last syllable. Mr. and Mrs. Church have their own automobile here and certainly enjoy life.

Mrs. Francis Murphy. As we have been in Los Angeles but little of the time that we have spent in this wonderful state, here are many friends with whom the pleasure of meeting still lies in the future. Within the past week, however, we have formed one new friendship which has been very delightful and in which many friends at home will be interested. This new friend is Mrs. Francis Murphy, a charmingly graceful woman, with a beautiful face, blue-gray eyes and soft gray hair, idly gowned and strikingly handsome in appearance, she looks as though far remote from the men to whom her husband is devoting his life. Yet one soon realizes that her heart is in his work and that she is a true helpmeet. A ready sympathy, a winning manner, an earnest Christianity, an honest pride in her husband and a belief in the nobility of the gospel temperance movement, are quickly discerned by those who come to know Mrs. Murphy.

Mr. Murphy raised quite a tempest in a tent at one of his meetings by defending the army canteen as the least two evils and by giving his personal testimony that worse conditions existed without it than with it in many cases. W. C. T. U. women immediately took off their blue ribbons, claiming that if Mr. Murphy endorsed the canteen, they would not wear his colors, but the temperance warrior stood fast in his own convictions and the tempest blew over. For five weeks he spoke to crowded houses in this city and over four thousand pledges were signed. Out of compliment to the work he has been doing, the judges and attorneys of the Los Angeles County Bar Association, have decided to omit the customary wine from the menu at their annual banquet.

This week Mr. Murphy is speaking at Long Beach, where an attempt is being made to open the saloons by popular vote next week. The fight is a bitter one and the no license party counted on Mr. Murphy's influence to help them keep saloons out of Long Beach. Next week Mr. Murphy and his wife will spend at San Pedro, a harbor town and said to be the toughest place in southern California. An effort is being made by Los Angeles business men to make a permanent gospel temperance work for Mr. Murphy in this city and it is very probable that the great reformer will accept this work and abandon traveling. His eastern trip will not be given up, however, and Mrs. Murphy will accompany him when he visits Janesville.

TO OPEN COLLEGE IN AUGUST NEXT

Spiritualists Are Confident of Raising Money Enough to Build and Start Up at Whitewater.

The Spiritualist college at Whitewater, Wis., will open the second week in August, declared President Clara L. Stewart of the Wisconsin State Spiritualist association, in her annual address before the convention in Milwaukee yesterday afternoon. While no definite plans have been announced for raising the $10,000 necessary to secure the like sum proffered by Morris Pratt, who gave the college building, it is expected that the money will be obtained between now and the time for the opening of the college for its first term, and every detail for the commencement of the institution has been completed in that expectation.

The officers and faculty of the college, as announced by Mrs. Stewart, will be as follows: President and Professor of Homiletics, Exegesis, Higher Criticism and Comparative Theology—Rev. Moses Hull of Buffalo. Vice President—William H. Rogers. Treasurer—J. C. Bump of Milwaukee.

Secretary Mrs. Clara L. Stewart. Superintendent—A. J. Weaver. Instructor in Physical Development—Mattie E. Hull. Instructor in Physical and Voice Culture—Mrs. Alfarata Jahneke. The college will be the first spiritualist institution in the United States and will open under the auspicious circumstances with a fine three-story brick building situated four blocks from the center of Whitewater and with an endowment fund of $20,000. It will prepare students to preach spiritualism, and is expected to become the rallying point of the followers of the cult.

NEWS OF RAILWAYS

Since March 26 480 notices of reductions in freight rates have been filed with the Interstate Commerce commission by the Western roads. Since injunctions against paying rebates or secretly cutting rates were granted by the United States courts the railroads have found it necessary to make open reductions when they found they could not get the business at prevailing traffic rates. Fears are entertained that this condition of things will soon lead to an open war. The grain traffic coming to Chicago from the West is distressingly small, and there is nothing ahead for the next thirty days to afford them material relief. The last week's receipts were the smallest in two months, being 1,608,000 bushels, a decrease of 400,000 bushels from the previous week, a reduction of 1,815,000 bushels from last year, and 2,670,000 bushels from 1900, and were the smallest of any corresponding week since 1895.

Pleasantly Surprised.

Last evening Mrs. E. M. Slisson and daughter Clara were pleasantly surprised by thirty of their lady friends. It was in the nature of a farewell party as they were about to leave for Milwaukee, their future home. During the evening Mrs. Slisson was presented with a set of silver tea spoons by Miss Hattie Heinrich in behalf of the lady friends. There was selected music by Olive Trumble and Louise Bowman. Delightful refreshments were served and a very enjoyable evening was spent by all.

MILTON AVE. JOYS.

J. P. McNally was quite surprised Friday morning when he learned that his team of colts started at their day's work themselves, they did their work well, only smashing the thills and tearing up ten rods of fencing.

BETTER WAGES IN THE LARGE CITIES

Workmen Receive Small Pay in Country Towns—Cost of Living in Cities is Higher, However.

The state labor commissioner is beginning to receive replies to the individual wage-earner's statement sent out some time ago showing that men in the small cities of the state who are not working at trades which are thoroughly organized into unions receive wages almost as low as are paid to European workmen. Their wages are much lower than those paid to men in the same town working at a trade which is generally organized into unions.

The printers throughout the state are well organized, and although the wages received in the small cities of the state are shown to be much lower than those paid in the city, there is no glaring discrepancy which cannot be accounted for in the reduced cost of living in the smaller town.

Machinists, however, are poorly organized in the state. In the large cities, where there is plenty of work, the lack of organization is not evident in the wages paid, as shown by the statements received by the labor department.

The men in the cities all say that employment is easy to get and wages are higher than for many years. Many reports are received from small towns, however, sent in by men who claim to be machinists, and report their weekly wage to be from $7 to $9 per week. The men in the same lines in the cities are receiving three or four times that amount.

The same thing is true of men working at other trades not generally organized into unions. Although the union men fare better in smaller towns than unorganized trades, nevertheless, the small town, the report shows, are a poor place for wage-earners, so far as the wage received is concerned. The investigation of the department has not gone far enough to determine whether the difference in wages is owing to cheaper living, but whether the officers of the department believe that in most cases it does.

FIRST CROP REPORT BEING SENT OUT

Weather Bureau's Bulletin Does Not Show Favorable Condition—Meadows and Pastures Poor.

The first number of the weekly crop bulletin for the season of 1902 was published yesterday from the office of the weather bureau at Madison and will make its appearance hereafter, until the close of the season, on every Tuesday noon.

The reports received the past week from correspondents in different sections of the state were not very favorable, the lack of moisture, together with the late pasturing, resulting in a rather poor condition of meadows and pastures. From the northern section came the report that the cold weather of the past week was unfavorable for spring work and the ground was dry and cold.

In the middle section the spring opened earlier than last season and spring wheat seeding commenced the last week in March. Seeding was well along, although the ground was very dry, and unless rain comes soon, the grain will not germinate. Clover and winter grain was reported to have wintered well.

In the southern section the seeding of oats was nearly completed. Rye and winter wheat were making slow growth and somewhat injured in exposed localities, but would improve rapidly with rain and warm weather.

THE VILLAGE POSTMASTER

One of the Prettiest Rural Plays Ever Put on Stage Friday Night. "The Village Postmaster" is another of the rural entertainments which have come to enjoy such prestige of late years and whose development and popularization is a blessing to the stage. One night of "The Village Postmaster" with its innocent fun, its simple but charming story and its wholesome lessons, is worth ten years of experience with plays of the baser sort.

The complete New York production will be seen at the Myers Grand on Friday evening, next. This is the New England play that created such a sensation in New York and which had a run at the 14th street theater there of 227 nights. It is with pleasure that the attention of theater patrons can be directed to such a play. Don't forget also that this most successful play has just finished a long run of 125 nights in Chicago, where it played to big business all the time.

LOCAL ELECTIONS HELD IN ILLINOIS

Candidates for Mayor at Hutton Indulge in a Street Fight

FOR AND AGAINST LICENSE

Party Lines Drawn in but Few Cases, the Saloon Question Being the Principal Bone of Contention in Most of the Smaller Cities and Towns.

Chicago, April 16.—Municipal elections were held throughout Illinois yesterday, and in nearly all instances a fairly heavy vote was polled. With one or two exceptions the contests were quiet. At Auburn wild disorder prevailed and a general outbreak was narrowly averted. Mayor Wheeler and George W. Hutton, his opponent, fought on the street, and Mr. Hutton, who is a banker, was badly beaten, and also defeated at the polls. Several encounters between the voters kept the town in a state of apprehension all of the day.

In Peoria the Republicans gained one alderman. In Chillicothe opposition to the present water company was the issue and won.

In Joliet there was a bitter fight to secure control of the school board, and it is estimated that 3,000 women voted. The Republicans will retain control of the schools, but the Democrats have won the city council.

In Bloomington honors were about evenly divided between Republicans and Democrats. Socialists entered the field for the first time and polled 300 votes. In Elgin a proposition to change the water supply from the Fox river to artesian wells carried and the voters also favor granting street car extensions. A proposition to grant future franchises without first submitting to popular vote was defeated.

At Aurora the feature was the presence of women at the polls working for the Law Enforcement league. Monmouth, a college town and anti-license for three years, was carried by the saloon people, owing to a desire for more revenue and a failure to control the "joints."

McCLAIN Mack
In a majority of the smaller towns the issue was license. Special dispatches show that the following towns voted against saloons:

Alto Pass, Altoona, Barry, Bridgeport, Brocton, Chrisman, Coatsburg, Centralia, Eureka, Farina, Golden, Greenville, Hamilton, Hillsboro, Hull, Hume, Knoxville, Manito, Magnolia, Millidgeville, Moweaqua, Mount Carroll, Monticello, Paxton, Ramsey, Tamaroa, Tallula, Tolono, Toledo, Tuscola, Vienna, Wheaton.

The following towns voted in favor of saloons: Arcola, Benton, Bement, Belvidere, Carbondale, Chenoa, Fairbury, Greenup, Gibson City, Illinois, Lanark, Lonestar, Lewistown, Marshall, Monmouth, Mount Carmel, Maron, McLeansboro, Onawa, Princeton, Pittsfield, Paw Paw, Rushville, Riverton, Salem, Varna, Warren.

Where party lines were drawn the Republicans won in the following places: Aurora, Alton, Charleston, Kewanee, Lacon, Matteson, Mendota, Morris, Naperville, Ottawa, Pana, Vandalia.

Democrats carried the election at the following points: Alhambra, Assumption, Evans, Havana, Kankakee, Lincoln, Metropolis, Wenona, West Chicago.

In the following towns issues other than saloons or parties dominated: Chadwick, Chester, Lafose, Marion, Rockford, Rutland, Savanna, Shannon, Sycamore.

He may be able to leave the infirmary in two or three weeks and again he may be compelled to stay a month or so. The operation lasted one and a half hours.

ILLINOIS CROP BULLETIN.

Conditions Favorable for Farming Operations, Though Rain Is Needed.

Springfield, Ill., April 16.—The weekly crop bulletin for the week ending April 14 says: "Except in parts of the south central district, where work has been delayed by wet soil, conditions have been favorable for carrying on farming operations during the first two weeks of April. Conditions have not, however, been favorable for the germination and growth of vegetation. The weather has been too cold. As a consequence vegetation is not now in a reasonable state of advancement. In many localities rain is badly needed. In the northern and central districts it is believed there has been some slight deterioration in the condition of wheat, due mainly to dry weather and to the exposure of roots by high winds.

"Some improvement in the crop is apparent. The average condition of the crop throughout the state has not changed greatly.

"In some localities rye is not doing well, but is generally in good condition. The seedling of oats has progressed fairly well. Conditions have not been favorable for germination, and it is feared many fields will have to be resown. Many farmers have begun to prepare corn ground. The cool, dry weather of the last two weeks has been unfavorable for pastures and meadows. In some localities rain is needed. The condition of clover is less favorable than that of other grasses. Fair progress has been made in gardening and potato planting, but the cold weather has retarded the growth of gardens. Fruit prospects indicate a large crop, except peaches."

Start Girls Right!

Many beautiful girls become invalids for life, because at the crucial period of puberty they pay no attention to the laws of health. Mothers should protect their daughters' health by giving them necessary information and proper treatment. When the menses come on a girl unawares in her inexperience she is either frightened into convulsions, or scared into trying to check the flow. Many girls have checked the flow and it has never started again. And as a result they have grown pale-faced, with "crow-backs" on their cheeks, and dark half-moons under their eyes. A dose of taken every morning after a girl is twelve years old will bring the menses on properly and keep them regular. It will help her to develop into attractive womanhood and equip her for the duties of wife and motherhood. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

The Hollywood, Asbury Park, N. J., February 9, 1900.
I read your advertisement in regard to Wine of Cardui in the Baltimore American, and it so favorably impressed me that on my visit to Baltimore during the holidays I purchased a bottle of it for my adopted daughter, who was suffering with female troubles. She had been under the doctor's care for some time, and when her periods would come on her suffering was something terrible. I induced her to try it and the first dose brought on her menses. She took it regularly according to the directions, and was greatly relieved. To use her own words, "It saved my life." J. WESLEY CROSS.

TRUSTS AND COMBINES

The Rev. Sam Jones, noted for originality, yet possessing a good stock of common sense, recently expressed his opinion on trusts and combines. While so much is being said and written just now about these two "great evils," it is refreshing to have the other side of the case represented by an able exponent. Mr. Jones said in part:

"The large trusts and combinations already formed, and being formed, by aggregation of capital, are considered hurtful to the masses and the common people. This is a theory. Theoretically a thing may be so, and practically it may be very untrue. When we speak of trusts and combines we think of the Standard Oil Trust, the sugar trust, the tobacco trust, etc. When the Standard Oil trusts were formed I was paying forty cents a gallon for kerosene oil; I am getting it now for ten cents a gallon. I was paying twelve and one-half cents for sugar several years ago, but when the combines set in we got it at five and one-quarter. When the whiskey trust was organized I was in hopes it would put up the price where the poor devils couldn't get it, but they seemed to cheapen that down to where they can pay the government $1.10 a gallon revenue on it and yet sell it for $1.27 1-2, which demonstrates that they are making it and letting the public have it at about seventeen and one-half cents a gallon.

"There is no doubt the aggregation of wealth, with brains controlling it, can manufacture any article cheaper than it is or has been manufactured on a small scale. The great railroad combinations, many think, will eat us up blood rare. Occasionally I get on a little jerk-water road that is not in the combination and I want to double my accident policies and be satisfied with a 15-mile-an-hour gait and console myself that I can ride all day for a dollar, but when I get on the Pennsylvania or Vanderbilt system of roads, with their schedules forty miles an hour, vestibule trains, with parlor cars, sleeping cars, dining cars, I have a hotel on wheels carrying me toward my destination and all this for about two cents a mile. Give me the road that is in the combine to carry me where I am going.

"Public sentiment is the safeguard which is thrown around all aggregations of wealth and all combinations of interest. The Standard Oil, the railroad combinations, the sugar trust, are as sensitive to public sentiment as the snow bank to the rays of the sun. Trusts and combines will not hurt the public, but stockholders and bond holders may suffer later on, when these great bulky institutions become unwieldy and fall with their own weight."

The sentiment expressed by Mr. Jones, will be endorsed by fair minded thinking people. The age is progressive and while many modern inventions and discoveries prove, for the time, a hardship to a limited class of artisans, the great mass of humanity is bettered and there is no disposition towards a retrograde movement. These discoveries are not all confined to the world of art and science, but the commercial world, ever alert, is always ready to adopt new methods and explore untested fields. The Rockefeller discovered many years ago, that an unlimited supply of oil was lying dormant, waiting for intelligent energy and capital to produce it at prices that would make it popular with the masses. Money and brains were freely invested and the Standard Oil company magnified more than any company that has ever existed because successful, produced and placed it on the market within the reach of everybody.

The Havemeyers, consigned to perdition more frequently than any other men who ever lived, because of the sugar trust, are still holding the market where sugar is no longer a luxury. Prices advance beyond legitimate profits, not because of trusts, and combines, but because of supply and demand. When the market is glutted with any commodity, prices weaken, and no combination has yet been discovered that is strong enough to prevent a decline in price. This is just as true of labor. When times are good and labor in active demand, wages correspond, but when times are depressed, no combination can prevent decline.

The common law of business is the survival of the fittest. It may seem hard and unjust and yet in the march of progress it is only law that governs. The merchant expects to meet competition. He understands very well that there is neither friendship nor sentiment in trade. His best customers will cross the street to save a nickel, and he recognizes the fact that he has no right to complain, so he devotes his energies to holding and increasing trade, not by an appeal for support, but by bargains in quality and prices. If he can't win on these lines, he retires from the field and is never missed.

Many middle men, both in business and manufacturing, have been driven from the field, because of changed conditions. The manufacturer attempts to meet the consumer direct and in many cases he does it to the extent that the middle man is crowded out. There is no law that can regulate, and popular sentiment does not demand regulation.

"PERSONAL LIBERTY"

A good deal of nonsense is being uttered by divers Wisconsin newspapers—and not all of them democratic—about "personal liberty." The effort is being put forth to alarm the German-Americans especially, less this valuable quantity should be endangered in the election of such a man to the governorship as Senator Whitehead and hence to enlist their antagonism to that movement. Our German born citizens, however, must have only contempt for these attempts to "work" them for purely political purposes. They must realize that they have and will continue to have—no matter who is president or governor in this or any other state—a large measure of personal liberty than they had in their native land. As an illustration of this fact, we have only to refer to a recent Berlin dispatch, giving the particulars of how Emperor William put a vigorous stop to the Christian Science propaganda in that country and to another instance where he caused a spiritualistic meeting to be broken up by his policemen, the doings of the medium to be exposed and the woman herself to be placed under arrest and subject to prosecution. Without going into the question of whether or not his majesty was justified in these drastic proceedings, we wish to point out the fact that nothing of the kind is ever attempted in this country on the part of any government official—federal, state or local, as indeed it would not be tolerated. Here every citizen is privileged to do as he likes, so long as he does not infringe upon the rights of his neighbor. He may even make a fool of himself with impunity, if that be his inclination, by espousing this, that or the other absurdism—political, social or religious.

Moreover the foregoing instances afford only tame examples of the limitations that are placed upon the exercise of private judgment and of personal liberty in Germany. For instance, the freedom of the press is considerably circumscribed there, especially regarding its criticisms of high public officials and the course or policy of government. On the other hand, here unlimited latitude is allowed. It would therefore seem that our German-born citizens constitute an element of our population the least likely of any to be influenced by the insensate alarms that are sounded every little while regarding the danger confronting the personal liberty of citizens by the candidacy for or the election of any person to any public office. It is all fustian—Appleton Post.

The only thing necessary for conservative republicans to do, is to keep their garments on and saw wood. There is no division of sentiment and only one candidate in the field. Senator Whitehead and his friends are neither asleep nor worrying. The convention will be a test of strength and that body will be necessary to determine who is the successful candidate.

Washington correspondents for the Wisconsin press, are devoting their time principally to guessing on the political situation in the state. They retire from the field every day with the satisfaction of knowing that they have another guess coming. If the papers represented will consult their constituency, they will find more reliable information at home.

Insurance journals claim that Wisconsin showed a fire loss of 68 per cent of premium receipts last year, and expense were 35 per cent, a net loss of 3 per cent. Any mercantile business that would show an expense account of 35 per cent, would be bankrupt in a year.

With a budget showing a deficit of $200,000,000, England is ready to abandon free trade and seek relief in a protective tariff. The United States came out of the war with Spain, which cost $300,000,000 and at the end of two years, is able to abolish the war tax, with a full treasury.

Milwaukee took a breasting spell after her insurance swindle, and then invested in another gold brick offered by T. F. Tallman, in the shape of semi-monthly dividends of 10 per cent on stock. The Cream City is carrying this personal liberty business a little too far.

"There's plenty of room at the top" but the climb is so dizzy, that the average mortal falls in the attempt, and is satisfied with an easy landing near the base.

Hill and Waterson are pleading for harmony in the ranks of democracy. While Bryan is attending strictly to farming and popular money on a basis of 16 to 1.

The new passenger station of the Milwaukee road will be an ornament to the city, and a great convenience to the road.

If the drought continues, oleomargarine and beef tea will take the place of porter house steak.

The new Beloit electric line is well in hand, and the Line City people will soon have an opportunity to squander some of their prosperity in the Bower City.

The Knickerbocker plant struck gravel without a bonus. The proprietors must have overlooked a bet.

The new council, when organized, should remember that there is a limit to personal liberty.

Have you attended the revival meetings at the Court Street Church? PRESS COMMENT

With rent going up a peg with clock-like regularity fall and spring, with the beef trust busily engaged in putting the price of its product up notch by notch, with the price of vegetables, clothing and the other necessities of life climbing upward without faltering, the man that foots the bills should have no difficulty in realizing what a great blessing "prosperity" is to him.—Milwaukee News.

The Madison Journal, after bolting the Republican city ticket, once more comes out with a plea for a union on La Follette and Spooner. The editor knows a thing is impossible. The governor hates the senator and has set his henchmen, Haugen and Overbeck, to abusing him all over the state. Besides this, the editor knows that LaFollette has tied up Isaac Stephenson, whose once ambition to defeat Spooner, because the latter refused to help him beat Quarles. Unless Doc Wilder can develop more political sense, his business associates should hire somebody to steal him.—Cambria News.

Delavan Enterprise: And now another objection has been found to Senator Whitehead's candidacy for governor. The horsemen are said to be opposed to him because he was the champion of the "law that greatly injured the breeding and training of light harness horses in the state." In other words the suppressed race-track gambling. That settles it. Whitehead favors temperance and morality and is opposed to gambling. He is not a fit man to be governor. We expect to hear next that the poultrymen are agin' him because he is opposed to cock-fighting.

It is such a relief to know that editor Wilder was not lost. If the Stalwarts had got him, the greatness of the question of what they would have done with him is equalled only by the greater one of what the rest of us would have done without him. The world would be a cold world without Wilder.—Milwaukee Free Press.

Oshkosh Northwestern: The Milwaukee Sentinel hopes the Oshkosh postoffice fight will not become a national issue. If the Sentinel could fear some of the local politicians discuss the matter it would think there were no other issues which are worth considering.

With less than seven months in the executive chair, President Roosevelt has won the confidence of the whole country to a remarkable degree, not excelled in the case of any executive who has graced the White House.—La Crosse Republican and Leader.

Lake Geneva Herald: We wonder if those who have been trying to decide whether a college education pays took into consideration the "Varsity" baseball players, who graduate into $3,000 positions in the pitcher's box of the National League.

Madison Journal: It has been clearly responsible in any wise for the defeat of the taxation bills. He is, however, responsible for the tax commission, and in due time the excellent results will be seen.

Oshkosh Northwestern: Not all election bets are silly. A Milwaukee man who lost was compelled to scrub the sidewalk in front of his neighbor's residence.

HYDROPHOBIA IN FLOCK OF SHEEP

Animals of Outagamie County Farmer Attack Each Other, Using Their Teeth.

State Veterinarian E. D. Roberts reports that hydrophobia among cattle, sheep and hogs is prevalent in all parts of the state. There is more of this disease this spring than there has been in years and the veterinary department is kept on the jump most of the time answering calls to come and examine affected flocks and herds.

He left this morning for Appleton and Ridgeway, Wis., where a number of cases are reported. In a great many cases the animals are killed at once and in others a strict quarantine is established. When the disease once gets started in a community it is extremely difficult to stamp it out, unless strict quarantine is maintained by the farmers, after it is once established. Just at present there is none of the disease in this immediate vicinity but there is no telling where it will make its appearance.

In the case at Appleton a mad dog was found among a herd of sheep. All the sheep that were bitten are now coming down with hydrophobia at the rate of seven or eight a day. Some of them have died. As soon as the symptoms manifest themselves the animals are separated from the rest of the flock. The sheep froth at mouth and are continually butting and biting each other.

Nearly all the sheep were bitten either on the neck or on the head. Their noses are red and badly swollen and their eyes have a vicious look. Some of them are blind and badly bruised as the result of butting each other. Two of the sheep died yesterday and several more today. It is the first case of the kind ever reported in that county if not the state, and is attracting widespread attention. The sheep suffer intensely and can be heard bleating for a considerable distance.

GIBSON WILL GET GOODNOW'S PLACE

Well Known Conductor Selected for General Superintendent of St. Paul Railway System.

It is said today that a decision has practically been reached by the higher officials of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road to appoint James F. Gibson, the present superintendent of the Chicago division of the line, to be general superintendent of the company to succeed Charles A. Goodnow, who recently resigned the general manager of the Rock Island system.

Mr. Gibson has a very large circle of friends in this city who will be very pleased to hear of his proposed promotion, and the news will also be well received by the St. Paul railway employees in this city, with whom Mr. Gibson is very popular.

Mr. Gibson was formerly a resident of Milwaukee, having resided there a great many years when employed as a conductor on the LaCrosse division of the line. When appointed to the superintendency of the Chicago division Mr. Gibson removed to Chicago, but business in connection with the division has called him to this city on two or three days of every week.

As general superintendent, Mr. Gibson would have charge of the operating departments of the entire Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul system.

Building Street Car Barns

The rebuilding of the street railway car barns which were destroyed by fire on the morning of February 4 is well under way. The foundation of the building is completed and Contractor David Stewart started on the carpenter work today. The building will be rushed along to completion and will be ready for the new cars ordered by the company when they arrive from the factory. Mr. Blabon of Philadelphia, a son of George W. Blabon, the owner of the line has been here for some days. Mr. Blabon is not officially interested in the company but has given the line some attention while here.

Fire in Home of George Crane

A telephone alarm sent into the West Side fire station at about 10:30 o'clock last night called the department to the home of George Crane, on Washington street. The blaze was caused by the head of a match flying off and lodging in a chenille curtain which instantly caught fire. The curtain was consumed and the door casing and the pillows on a bed near by were badly burned before the fire was extinguished.

Box 16 was pulled on the annunciator at the West Side station when the alarm came in over the phone. The machine is of great benefit to the department in turning in the number of the box nearest to where the alarm comes from.

Grading North First Street

P. W. Ryan started a large force at work this morning on North First street which he has the contract for grading. A large hole was left in the street about half way up the hill between Bluff and Wisconsin streets where it had been used for a gravel pit. The top of the pit will be graded down into the pit which will save hauling a large quantity of material. Quite a crowd gathered to see the actions of the horses hitched to the scrapers when they were driven over the steep bank at the brow of the hill. At first they would crouch and slide and almost roll down the incline. After a little they got used to the work and would go down all right.

Walter Johnson, Jesse Earle and Cornelius McGinley attended the Beloit-Michigan ball game yesterday afternoon in which Beloit defeated Michigan.

HIGH PRICES NOT DUE TO BUTCHERS

Reasons Why Beef is So High—Example of Steer Weighing 600 Pounds Sold at Retail.

A Janesville butcher answering the charge that meat is too dear furnishes a table showing exactly the uses to which a steer is put as well as the prices received for the various cuts of the animal.

The figures, are to show, he says, that the marketman is the victim of circumstances which compel him to charge the price he does. The shortage of feed a year ago, says this man, led the farmers to dispose of all their surplus stock, so that they would not be compelled to buy feed at the prevailing high prices. The result is that there is now a shortage of stock, as well as a firmer control of the situation on the part of the beef trust.

A steer weighing 600 pounds, costs, at the prevailing market price of 9 1/2 cents a pound, $5.70. In retail lots this is sold as follows: About 9 per cent in short loin, or porter house steak, weighing 54 pounds, and sold at 18 cents a pound, or $9.72; 10 per cent, serloin butt, 60 pounds, at 12 cents, $7.20; 9 per cent rib roast, 54 pounds, 13 cents, $7.02; 42 per cent from neck to shoulder blade, known as chuck and plate, 252 pounds at 7 1/8 cents, $17.94; 24 per cent, round and rump, 134 pounds, at 9 1/4 cents, $12.52; 6 per cent, kidney, tail and flank, 35 pounds, at 5 cents, $1.80.

These are all prevailing prices, prices which our butcher informant says are higher than those which have existed since the war, and it will be seen that the 100 per cent are accounted for as well as 600 pounds and that the total is just $57. The prices of the cuts, as cut and trimmed on the block for customers, shows the same result, apparently, and the final inquiry of the butcher is: Where does the public think his profit comes in, after he has paid off for rent, insurance, horses, horse feed, wear and tear on harness and wagon, etc.?

FINALLY DEFEATED THE BELOIT TEAM

Janesville Bowlers Succeeded in Getting a Game from the Bowlers of the Line City.

The match game of ten pins at Hockett's alleys last evening between Janesville and Beloit resulted in a victory for Janesville by 76 pins. The Janesville boys are quite elated over the outcome of the match as they have been defeated several times at Beloit by Beloit, both on the home alleys and at Beloit. Beloit led by seventy pins at the end of the first game but this lead was cut down to 34 pins at the end of the second game. In the last game the Janesville boys made a gain of 119 pins which left them 76 to the good at the end of the game. The score was:

SENATORS VOTE ON CHINESE BILL

Mr. Fairbanks Offers Important Amendments, Which Are Agreed To.

CAN RECOVER ON WAR CLAIMS

Illinois Officials Need but to Restrict Themselves to Secure Reimbursement by the United States Government at Expense Incident to the War.

Washington, April 16.—Voting on the Chinese exclusion bill and its amendments began at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Fairbanks of Indiana offered two important amendments striking out the definition as to Chinese students and teachers. By general consent a vote was taken on them and they were agreed to without division. It is thought this action will reconcile some of the opposition to the measure.

The debate was participated in by Senators Hittfield, Penrose and Turner in favor of the bill, and Senators Pritchard and Spooner in opposition. Mr. Turner made the assertion that politics had crept into the discussion, and that most of the members of the majority were opposed to the bill.

This brought out a sharp rejoinder from Mr. Spooner, who maintained that politics had not figured in the discussion, and that the opposition to the bill was due entirely to its conflict with the treaty and not because of any opposition to Chinese exclusion, which was an established doctrine of the government.

The senator declared that the time would never come when our people would admit the Chinese, no matter what steamship company or what railroad company desired it. Mr. Spooner said he believed in keeping treaty obligations, and either there should be exclusion consistent with our treaty, or else, if necessary required, there should be an abrogation of that treaty. As Mr. Spooner proceeded he had frequent sharp parliamentary exchanges with Mr. Patterson (Colo.) and Mr. Mitchell (Oregon) on incidental features of the bill.

Responding to Mr. Spooner, Mr. Platt said he would accept a specific provision continuing in effect the Scott act of 1888. He also agreed to a suggestion made by Mr. Lodge, extending the provisions of the substitute to the insular possessions of the United States and to Chinese coming to the mainland of the United States from those insular possessions.

State Can Recover War Claims.

Washington, April 16.—If Governor Yates and the attorney general of Illinois or any state official who is interested will act much can be done toward obtaining payment by the federal government of expenses incident to the war. It will probably be comparatively easy for Illinois to submit proof of its claim, but payment can only be obtained by calling the attention of the comptroller of the treasury officially or by the slower and more tedious process of a special act of congress. The comptroller finds that he has ample authority to reopen and review the case. With a favorable decision by the comptroller, no serious obstacle would be encountered in securing the payment of the claim. The state officials should hasten themselves.

Say Cuban Bill Is Safe.

Washington, April 16.—With the close of the Cuban reciprocity bill in the house the leaders announced that all danger of the bill being weighted down with undesirable amendments was over, and they felt assured the measure would pass in the shape in which it came from the committee. The vote may be reached to-day. The only cause of anxiety heretofore has been the possibility that enough Republicans would join with the Democrats to override the chair and tack onto the bill an amendment to abolish the differential on refined sugar. At the close of the session of the house it was announced that the entire Republican delegation from Michigan and California, who constitute the head and front of the opposition, had agreed not to vote to override the ruling of the chair. Mr. Watson (Ind.), who is acting as the whip for the majority, does not believe over a dozen Republicans at the outside will join the Democrats on this proposition. It would require more than twenty Republican votes to place on the bill the amendment which might endanger its ultimate passage, as several Democrats, it is understood, have declared their intention to stand by the chair.

Army Officers Retire.

Washington, April 16.—Brigadier Generals Isaac D. De Russy, Andrew S. Burt and Michael V. Sheridan, recently appointed, were placed on the retired list on their own applications, after forty years of service. One of the vacancies in the list of brigadier generals thus created has been filled by the promotion of Colonel Mott Hooton, Twenty-eighth Infantry, who will be regularly retired for age to day. General Hooton is a native of Pennsylvania and entered the army as a volunteer sergeant in June, 1861. He recently has served in the Philippines. It is expected that three more colonels who served during the civil war also will be promoted to the grade of brigadier general in a few days and similarly retired on their own applications.

Bishop Hurst Is Ill.
Washington, April 16.—Rev. John Fletcher Hurst, the Methodist Episcopal bishop of Maryland and chancellor of the American University, is lying very ill at his home on Connecticut avenue. Grave fears were expressed by his attending physicians, and his sons have been sent for. Last autumn Bishop Hurst had an apoplectic stroke while attending an international conference in London. The seizure occurred immediately he heard of the assassination of President McKinley, to whom the bishop was devotedly attached. He has never entirely recovered, and the gradual failure of his mental faculties has been apparent since that time. The divine is in his sixty-ninth year, and is a native of Maryland. He has been bishop of the province since 1880, and is the senior bishop of his church.

The proposed commission is composed of the chairman of the senate and house committees on library, and Secretary of State and the Secretary of War. Twenty-five thousand dollars is to be appropriated to carry out the purpose of the bill.

Burglars Busy in Northwest.

Eveleth, Minn., April 16.—Burglars wrecked the local station of the Duluth, Mesaba & Northern railroad, using such a heavy charge of nitroglycerin that the whole town was shaken and the residents awakened. The railway station was blown to atoms, and not a trace of the safe that was inside it can be found. The explosion was the second of the night to arouse the citizens. Several hours earlier the city jail was burned and a prisoner whose body was identified as that of M. J. Palm, a miner, was cremated in his cell.

Maiden Rock, Wis., April 16.—Burglars made an unsuccessful attempt to blow up the bank here. Several buildings were wrecked and the whole town awakened. The safe-blowers escaped on a hand car.

Beatrice, Neb., April 16.—The State bank at Milligan was broken into, the safe blown and robbed of a considerable amount of money.

President Palma Starts for Cuba.

New York, April 16.—Thomas Estrada Palma, president-elect of Cuba, took leave of his friends of Central Valley, N. Y., among whom he lived during eighteen years of exile from his country. A large crowd escorted him to the station. Mr. Palma will leave New York today for Cuba. He will land at Gibara and will go thence to Bayamo, where twenty-five years ago his mother, driven into the jungle by Spanish soldiers, died from exposure. His first duty in Cuba will be to seek out her neglected grave. From Bayamo he will go to Manzanillo, then to Santiago and last to Havana, which he plans to reach on May 9, the day before the Cuban congress convenes.

Springfield, Mass., April 16.—Disguised in woman's clothes and wearing a veil and a wig, Bernard Heilhaus entered the Highland hotel and shot and killed his wife, who was employed there as a cook. In trying to escape he wounded a bartender and fired at a hotel guest. He managed to get away after leaping from a window thirty feet above the ground.

May Head Woman's Clubs.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 16.—Mrs. Charles S. Morris of Berlin, Wis., who is talked of as a candidate for the presidency of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, has been most actively identified with the woman's club movement in Wisconsin. The organization of the Wisconsin Federation of Women's Clubs and its alliance with the general federation were largely due to her efforts.

Plan to Perpetuate G. A. R.

Springfield, Ill., April 16.—Stephen Post, G. A. R., of this city, which is named after the founder of the order, Dr. B. A. Stephenson, will present to the state encampment at Rock Island next month a plan for the perpetuation of the order by admitting sons of members and other descendants to membership on the same plan as the Loyal Legion.

STUDENT SLAYS RUSSIAN MINISTER

M. Sipiaguine of the Interior Department Is Shot to Death.

ASSASSIN DISGUISED AS AID

Murderer Revengees Alleged Injustice Meted Out to Him for Participating in the Riots of 1901. When He Was Sentenced to Compulsory Military Duty.

St. Petersburg, April 16.—The minister of the interior, M. Sipiaguine, was shot at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the lobby of the ministerial offices by an assassin, who held a pistol close to the minister's person. The wounded man died at 2 p. m.

The assassin is a student, who gained access to the building disguised in the uniform of an aid-de-camp. He was arrested immediately.

It was learned that M. Sipiaguine was on his way to attend a meeting of the committee of ministers. He had just entered the office of the imperial council when the assassin, who had driven up in a carriage, approached and handed him a folded paper, saying he had been charged to deliver it by the Grand Duke Sergius.

The minister stretched out his hand to take the document, when the assassin fired five shots at him. Three of the bullets struck M. Sipiaguine and one wounded his servant.

The assassin did not resist arrest. He said his name was Balchansett, that he was a student at Klett, where he had been sentenced to compulsory military service for participating in the riots of 1901. He said he had subsequently been pardoned, but that he had not been reinstated at the university, and had therefore revenge himself upon M. Sipiaguine.

A previous attempt to shoot M. Sipiaguine was made on the Nevsky Prospect a year ago.

M. Sipiaguine was a nobleman by birth, and spent most of his life in the service of the emperor. The position which he held was one of the most important in the entire empire, and he had filled it for a number of years. He was considered a man of exceptional ability and force; in fact, it was these two qualities alone which lifted him from a position of comparative obscurity to his high post of honor. He was always popular among most of the officials of the government, although he had a few bitter enemies both in and out of the administration.

The decedent's rise to power was gradual. Step by step he climbed from the office of provincial governor and assistant to the minister for the interior to be the chief of that big department. He was still a young man, and the brilliancy of his past record indicated a future not less encouraging.

His post was one which demanded the utmost exercise of intelligence, tact and judgment. It was his duty as minister to provide relief for famine-stricken districts. He was charged with the supervision of the work of the secret police, whose duties correspond closely to those of the United States secret service men. He was also official censor of the press.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE

Mrs. Eckis Stevenson of Salt Lake City Tells How Operations For Ovarian Troubles May Be Avoided.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered with inflammation of the ovaries and womb for over six years, enduring aches and pains which none can dream of but those who have had the same experience. Hundreds of dollars went to the doctor and the druggist. I was simply a walking medicine chest, and a physical wreck. My sister residing in Ohio wrote me that she had been cured of womb trouble by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and advised me to try it. I then discontinued all other medicines and gave your Vegetable Compound a thorough trial. Within four weeks nearly all pain had left me; I rarely had headaches, and my nerves were in a much better condition, and I was cured in three months, and this avoided a terrible surgical operation."—Mrs. ECKIS STEVENSON, 250 So. State St., Salt Lake City, Utah.—$5000 forfeit if above testimonial is not genuine.

Remember every woman is cordially invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about her symptoms she does not understand. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass.

The Mistake

THAT SO MANY

is that they think they are so much smarter than their fellows. You will make many less mistakes in life if you will give the other fellows credit for as much wisdom as you think yourself possess. Don't fool yourself with the idea that by buying a cheap ready-to-wear suit of clothes you are buying a bargain. The man who sells it to you makes a profit, and when you deduct that profit from the price, that you paid for a cheap suit or top coat, there is not enough left to pay for worthy material, good tailoring and style.

It Shouldn't Be Difficult For You To See The Point.

Zeigler clothes cost more than ordinary ready-to-wear garments, but the difference is greater than that expressed by the price, because, when you buy a Zeigler suit or top coat, you are getting that which is conceded by everybody familiar with the subject to be

The Very Best-- Without An Equal
